Julianna (Jules) S. Lamon

Sarasota, FL | jules.lamon@lamons.org

Versatile pre-law English and Political Science student-athlete; homeschooled, in college courses from age 13, and a competitor in nearly every youth sport. Strengths: case-law analysis, legal and historical research, persuasive writing.

EDUCATION

New College of Florida, Sarasota, FL — Expected May 2028

B.A. candidate, double Area of Concentration in English and Political Science (pre-law)

- Presidential Scholarship (NCF's top academic scholarship); Florida Bright Futures Scholarship.
- Relevant coursework: The American Common Law: Torts; The American Common Law: Contracts; American Constitutional Regime*; The American Presidency; War in Political Thought* (*in progress).

Hillsborough Community College, Tampa, FL — Completed 2025

Associate in Arts through dual enrollment, started at age 13; Phi Theta Kappa Honor Society

- Coursework included Introduction to the Court System, American Government, Ethics, and Speech.

Lamon Academy of Learning (home education), Brandon, FL: high school diploma, 4.0+ GPA — 2025

LEGAL RESEARCH & WRITING

Law and Literature Tutorial: Samuel Richardson's Clarissa, New College of Florida — Fall 2026 – Jan 2027

Independent research tutorial with Prof. John Park

- Researching how eighteenth-century legal ideas of consent and criminality shape Clarissa; about 7,000 words this term toward a senior thesis.
- Continuing the project in a January 2027 independent study on consent and John Locke.

American Constitutional Regime (seminar), New College of Florida — Fall 2026

Seminar research paper, Prof. Richard Izquierdo

- Writing "Constitutional Safeguards and the Legitimacy of Government"; outline approved by the instructor.

The American Common Law: Torts (seminar), New College of Florida — Spring 2026

- Named the top student in the seminar by the instructor; perfect scores on every quiz, the midterm, and the final exam.
- On a complex final-exam fact pattern, built several theories of liability, including a theory of assault the instructor had not seen any student raise.

Mock Trial Camp, Hillsborough County Courthouse, Tampa, FL — Summer 2024

- Learned court rules in four days, then served as lead attorney for the defense, wrote and delivered the closing argument, testified as a defense witness, and won Best Defense Witness.

ACADEMIC DISTINCTIONS

- The American Presidency (Fall 2025): 98/100; perfect scores on two of three exams; praised for "persuasive writing."
- Narrative and Architectural Theories (Spring 2026): final paper called "a tour de force" by the instructor.

ATHLETICS, LEADERSHIP & SERVICE

New College of Florida Women's Basketball (NAIA), Sarasota, FL — 2025 – Present

- Recruited since junior year; Hardworking Award (Oct 2025); team service at a state debate tournament at NCF.

FISH homeschool athletics (TBCAL); AAU: Tampa Bay Kings, later Bounty Hunters — Through 2025

- Basketball: varsity from 7th grade, played every position; went from sixth man to starter and team leader within one season by mastering the game plan first and lifting teammates; MVP in 8th grade; AAU State Showdown MVP (Bounty Hunters, 2024); senior year 11.9 PPG, 8.0 RPG, 2.3 SPG.
- Cross country: in her first season (senior year), voted most influential team member by teammates and coach. Soccer: ranked third in Florida as a goalkeeper (senior year), yet scored whenever moved to offense.
- 2024 NCAA College Basketball Academy (one of 300 chosen nationally); also volleyball, gymnastics, figure skating, dance, flag football; ran a 15K.

Polk County Parks & Recreation, Wabash After School Program volunteer (70 hours), Lakeland, FL — 2021 – 2022

- Created games and led children through homework and activities; offered a paid position by the program.

SKILLS & INTERESTS

Skills: Case and fact-pattern analysis; legal research and writing; oral advocacy; APA citation; Microsoft Excel; French.
Interests: Sports law and NIL policy; law school (LSAT 163, first official attempt); home renovation; car repair.